

Award Winning Guitarist Dan Papaila

Dan is a versatile musician whose skill has enabled him to perform with some of the most respected entertainers in the world. His interpretation and mastery of jazz standards makes him one of Southern California's most sought after guitarists.

Dan appears at many of the areas most prestigious venues so don't be surprised if your guests are already acquainted with the rich distinction that makes his performances so special!

- Dan's CD "Positively!" charted #11 on national radio and was named "Best Jazz Album" at the San Diego Music Awards.
- His televised performance at the awards ceremony aired regularly on BET, the cable jazz network.
- His "Full Circle" CD spent 10 weeks on the national charts and was nominated "Best Jazz/Blues Album" at the San Diego Music Awards - Dan's fifth nomination!

Dan is perfect for welcome receptions, dinners and intimate gatherings.